And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

The Hope That Banishes Hopelessness

READ: Philippians 2:5-11

God forbid that I should boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ. —Galatians 6:14

When atheistic communism was a world-menacing power, it proclaimed that there is no God and that faith in any future life is a deceptive illusion. Leonid Brezhnev had been the Soviet dictator, the embodiment of Marxist unbelief. But something happened at his funeral that contradicted atheism. George H. W. Bush, then vice president of the US, was the country's official representative at the solemn, formal ceremony.

He reported that while the casket was still open, Brezhnev's widow stared motionless at her husband's body. And just before the soldiers were about to close the lid, she reached inside and made the sign of the cross over his chest. What a desperate and significant gesture! That widow evidently hoped that what her husband had vehemently denied might somehow be true.

Thankfully, we can have hope beyond this earthly life! All we need to do is embrace by faith the saving message of the cross: Jesus died for our sins and rose again so that we might live eternally with Him. Do you believe? Then join with the apostle Paul in affirming that “we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe” (1 Tim. 4:10). — Vernon C. Grounds

The cross is my hope for eternity—
No merit have I of my own;
The shed blood of Christ my only plea—
My trust is in Jesus alone. —Christiansen

Calvary’s cross is the only bridge to eternal life.

Friends,

If there has ever been a time to come together on an issue that impacts so many families in our community, the time is now.

The next three months are crucial for the immigrant movement, and we need the support of everybody. We must come together and participate in the campaign for immigration reform.

Why? Our neighborhoods are being terrorized. Our children are being left without a mother or father. Our churches have a void, impossible to fill, because they are arresting and deporting our neighbors, our friends, our brothers and our sisters in Christ. We see their children at the altars, crying out for parents who have been dragged away, torn from their arms.

To fail to act now is to prolong the suffering, the family separations, the criminalization of those whose only crime is the desire to provide a better life for their families. Stand up and be counted now in the fight against injustice.
