November 23: Memorial for Warren Thanmithak

Bridget Siedler and her family invite members and friends of MCS to share in remembering the life of her son, Warren, on Saturday, November 23, at 2:00 p.m. The memorial will be at the Park Villa in Riverside Park.

Alternative Holiday Fair November 9, 9:00-4:00

Christmas shopping can be purposeful by shopping at the Alternative Holiday Fair. Many non-profit groups and several vendors will provide opportunities to purchase unique gifts while giving to others—for example, Sally and Belinda are staffing a table to raise money for MCC. The Alternative Holiday Fair will be at First Presbyterian Church, 525 N. Broadway (Market St. entrance).

Moving From Diversity to Inclusion

Internationally-known speaker, Angel Acosta, will be giving several presentations in Wichita on November 3-5. At an event focusing on New Americans on Sunday, November 3, Mr. Acosta will give an overview of the timeline of the last 400 years and how inequality has shaped the present. This presentation is from 6-8 p.m. at the Farm Credit building, 245 N. Waco.

On Monday, November 4, Mr. Acosta will focus on "400 Years and Beyond: Awareness, Action, and Healing." This event is at 6:30 p.m. at South High School, 701 W. 33rd St. South. There are also additional presentations and opportunities to walk through a visual timeline of the past 400 years. For more information, contact Pat or Sally.
